

Files and Formats

- # Programming is about processing data.
- # Data exists outside our programs, there must be places where to store data permanently.
- # A program must be able to load data from somewhere (disk, database, cloud) and to save results (disk, database, cloud, printer, ...)
- # First step: read and write files from and to the local disk

IO001 >>>